

Guidelines for “Homily” writings

The weekly “homily” writing is a way to connect the masses, readings, prayer services and other faith activities or experiences to YOU.

Writings should be AT LEAST 10 QUALITY SENTENCES.

You need to include the connection to YOU.

What did you get out of the experience, what can you do with the message, how did you or will you put your faith in action?

A sample format:

1. Give the Where, When, What, Who
2. Anything special/unique about the mass or event
3. Briefly summarize the reading or event – give 3-5 statements about it.
4. If a Mass, what did the priest talk about in his homily?
5. Give 2-3 sentences that tell how you can use the message, experience (How does this connect to YOU?)
